

In the fall of 2025, EviCore will introduce a new way of submitting service requests for providers. This new self-service platform will afford users a level of control and specificity previously unavailable for requests regarding, but not limited to:

- Claims
- Eligibility
- Authorization updates
- Participation status
- Provider information changes/updates

Under the enhanced process, you will be directed to submit requests electronically via the EviCore Communication Relationship Management (ECRM) portal rather than contacting our Client Services team via the current email-based process. With ECRM, the user will not only be able to choose from multiple options to ensure the issue is routed directly to the team that will address the concern, but will also have the ability to track the case's progress and make updates if necessary.

PLEASE NOTE: ECRM will not replace EviCore's provider portal for initiating, updating or managing prior authorization requests.

To help familiarize you with these changes, we invite you to attend an online orientation. All online orientation sessions require advance registration. Each session is free of charge and will last approximately 30 minutes. All sessions are scheduled in Eastern Time (ET).
