

Laboratory Claim Reimbursement

- This benefit/harm statement only applies to those jurisdictions that do not have Medicare guidance.
- Based upon the clinical policy, following EviCore's criteria for laboratory claim reimbursement will ensure that testing is appropriately reimbursed for those members most likely to benefit from the information provided by the assays. However, it is possible that some members who would benefit from the testing, but do not meet guideline criteria, will not receive an immediate approval or payment for testing.