

Evidence Discussion (AB 31.2)

Dual phase, MDCT (multidetector CT) scans play a critical role in diagnosing and staging pancreatic cancers. MR and EUS can be used in groups of patients where CT scan results are inconclusive in tumor localization and/or staging, particularly in vascular involvement.

References

World J Gastrointestinal Oncol 2014 Sep 15; 6(9): 330-343.