How to avoid inappropriate denials when services are appropriate?

Services that are deemed appropriate are those that follow clinical and/or medical necessity guidelines. You can find those guidelines at www.eviCore.com. Click the resources drop down button at the top right side of the web page to find the link to those guidelines.

If a provider follows guidelines that govern clinical and/or medical necessity criteria, but still experiences high denial rates, the reason may be due to clinical information missing from the case request. This is a list of information usually required:
- Reason and type of study requested
- Complaints and Symptoms, length of time experiencing symptoms
- If there was a prior sleep study, date and what type of study
- List of current medications
- Co-morbid conditions with recent supporting office notes, and length of time with conditions
- If repeat test, reason for need to repeat
- Has the patient ever been on PAP therapy before; if so, please provide the date
- Epworth Sleepiness Scale
- BMI
- STOP-BANG assessment
